The Art of Caring

Social Emotional Learning Summit and Student Showcase

Thursday, April 14 – 6 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Oakland painter Milton Bowens, an arts educator whose work hangs in galleries and the new Levis Stadium in Santa Clara, will be the keynote speaker at The Art of Caring: A Social Emotional Learning Summit and Student Showcase on April 14.

Bowens' work uses familiar images and historic text to question such topics as race and celebrity in American culture. Visit www.milton510.com to learn more about his story.

Various student groups will also perform at the event, which is aimed at building awareness of and support for SCUSD's Social Emotional Learning initiatives. A troupe from Albert Einstein Middle School will perform an act from Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night." Spoken word poets from Sacramento Area Youth Speaks (SAYS) will also perform, as will children from William Land Elementary School's production of "The Lion King," a choir from Sutterville Elementary, essayists from CK McClatchy, a student jazz combo and more! Refreshments will be served.

E. Claire Raley Studios for the Performing Arts
